CONVICTED —The papers tell us that the "Chapman pirates" have been convicted that the jury were out only four minutes and that a new trial has been denied them All a matter of course S Jeffries' Field the Judge before whom they had a mock trial had engaged to convict them before they were arraigned The Government had to make an example, you see. Therefore, two witnesses were got who were willing and ready to swear to anything and they did nor do we think perjured witnesses any worse than a purchased Judge If the testimony has been properly reported in the Abolition papers of San Francisco any honest juror in the world would have rendered a verdict of not guilty but honest jurors are not selected by Abolition Marshals for the trial of men whose property has been seized under a false charge and appropriated to the coffers of "loyal" spies informers and Government officials On the 15th instant Greathouse Rubery and Harpending were sentenced by Judge Field to ten years imprisonment and a fine of $10,000 each—the extreme penalty allowed by the law The papers say that Judge Field is about to start East to sit on the Supreme bench at the next term Of course he will there also decide on every question as his owner, Abraham Lincoln, orders him to decide Field is a "bully yaller dorg" He was Broderick's spaniel for years, he is now one of Lincoln's blood hounds—promoted, you see

The above delectable remarks are from the Eugene City Review—the editor of which can not but know that the proof on the trial of the traitors named, showed beyond the shadow of a doubt that they had devised a plan for the wholesale destruction of property and commerce on the Pacific coast In their defense, it was not even denied that this was their purpose and it was only alleged that as their scheme had not been accomplished and as they were acting under a pretense of authority from Jeff Davis, the Satan of treason, they ought only to be regarded as prisoners of war, and not as criminals, subject to the penalties of a violated law From the remarks quoted, it is evident that the Review justifies the villains who endeavored to plunder rob and destroy the property of the community simply because they desired the South to succeed in its infamous work of rebellion Would the Review also justify a band of highwaymen who should undertake in the name of the so-called Confederate Government to rob every traveler? And yet how would such actions differ morally or legally from the proposed plans of the vile traitors on account of whose conviction and sentence, it abuses Judge Field so wickedly? We confess our surprise at the words used for we had not supposed that any one on the coast, no matter what his political prejudices might be, had the slightest sympathy with such ruffians

WHAT WE OWE TO LINCOLN —The Kittanning, Pa , Mentor, says

When the tax collector comes around with his warrant, when we have to go and buy a stamp to put upon a deed, note, etc , when we go to a store and pay forty cents a pound for coffee instead of ten, when we look at our public debt and find it accumulating at the rate of over $2,000,000 per day when we look at our sons and brothers dragged from their homes to fight in a war they abhor, and when we look at the vacant chairs or new made graves of those who have died, let us remember that all these we owe to Mr Abraham Lincoln and the party that supports him

The Oregon Democrat publishes the foregoing, to which for the sake of truth, should be added, that all the miseries, sacrifices and expenses of the war, are the direct and inevitable result of the infamous bargains made by Northern Democrats with Southern slave holders, by which the former were allowed to hold office so long as they were obedient to their dictatorial masters Mr Lincoln became President in accordance with the Constitution, and then, "let us remember as long as we live," the Southern States — not the Government or the Republican Administration—commenced the war, and opened upon the Nation the great swelling tide of blood and death, of havoc and devastation, which the article quoted so unjustly and falsely imputes to the President and the party which elected him Certainly it ill becomes such Democrats as justify the South in its enormous crime against the Government and the people of the United States, to make accusations against those who are simply endeavoring to do their duty, have been compelled to do acts for which the original offenders ought truthfully and justly to be held responsible

CLACKAMAS COUNTY —We understand that the Circuit Court at Oregon City, closed its session yesterday, in the case of the State against Wm Stricklin, charged with the murder of Lebbeus Moran, the Jury did not agree, and the case was continued

STATESMAN OFFICE—The Democrat says in allusion to the sale referred to by us yesterday, that the purchasers were C N Terry B Simpson, Huntington, Condon, Mallory, and Crandall, for $7 000, in greenbacks

PACIFIC GAIN —The books of the San Francisco Custom House show that, to the 1st of October, 8,780 passengers have left California, while 25,904 have arrived, giving a gain of 16,124.

Additional Eastern News

WASHINGTON Oct 17 —The President has issued a proclamation for 300,000 volunteers to fill up the regiments and companies in the field If any State fails to furnish its quota by the 5th of January next a draft will commence that day to fill the deficiency

CINCINNATI Oct 17 —Returns from 80 counties in Ohio give Brough 61 4 2 majority —a gain of 60,000, with three counties to hear from

PHILADELPHIA Oct 18th —Sale of five twenties for the week amount to nine millions and a half

NEW YORK Oct 17 —The Post Washington correspondence says Gen Meade three weeks ago was ordered to fall back upon Centreville Lee discovering the retreat of our army, tried to take advantage of it He failed in that purpose and the Army of the Potomac is now in an impregnable position It stands on the defensive ready to strike a blow at the enemy and its present position is vastly safer for offensive operations than that held a week ago It was almost impossible to protect 80 miles of railroad across a hilly and woody part of Virginia Lee is quite strong in numbers —stronger than he was two months ago He has not only been reinforced by conscripts but by troops gathered from the vicinity of Richmond He is again falling back rapidly To-day no military movement is in progress The roads across the Potomac are muddy and it would be difficult for our army to move The heights of Centreville are ours and the disposition of the several corps is such as to defeat any attempt at a flank movement We hold Fairfax Court House in such force that the enemy dare not venture on our right flank Gen Halleck went down to the front yesterday evening to hold a conference with Gen Meade He is back to-day and it is said is satisfied with the position of the army

WASHINGTON Oct 17 —It is ascertained from the Army of the Potomac that the heavy rains yesterday prevented any field operations Our cavalry scouts failed to find any considerable body of the enemy and [illegible] officers, owing to the fog, saw no indications of any large force at Bristow It is believed that the enemy, having during the previous day reconnoitered our position and finding our lines impregnable returned forward and fearing a rise in the Rappahannock would interfere with their line of supplies have expedited their movements toward that line Our troops are equally well posted for advance or retreat If they attack us their defeat is considered beyond doubt A report reached headquarters that the enemy were in force this morning at and around Manassas Junction Some of our troops immediately prepared to advance probably to reconnoiter Our recent movements have been exclusively of a strategic character, in which Lee has been thus far completely outgeneraled by Meade No fear exists of our not being able to cope with Lee in the field if we should catch his forces en masse without our having a long base of supplies to protect

CLARKSBURG, Va, Oct 17 —Gen Sullivan reports that a portion of his command from Martinsburg Va yesterday encountered a division of Gilmore's rebel cavalry and captured the whole force (50 in number), with horses, equipments, etc

WASHINGTON Oct 18th —Our loss thus far on the whole retreat from Culpepper amount to 200 killed, wounded and missing together with a few wagons and a small amount of baggage belonging to the 6th corps which was destroyed by our men

The Star of last evening says Lee's present movements as far as we have been able to obtain information concerning them lead to the belief that he is already aiming to get away from Meade's immediate front as cheaply as possible, and it is to be taken for granted that Meade will make him pay dearly for his venture if he can We therefore look for a battle soon—our forces being the attacking party

Intelligence from the front to-day states that the rebel lines have fallen back somewhat from Bull run and that our forces are cautiously feeling the enemy's movements This apparent retrograde movement is construed by some into an advance toward the Potomac for crossing into Maryland while the indications are equally strong that Lee desires to get into no such position It is quite probable that a general engagement will come out of the present manœuvering

Moseby's guerrillas made a raid into Fairfax yesterday, and captured several officers and 50 or 60 men All our supply trains are duly guarded to prevent incursions of rebel cavalry

The sudden movement of our army shut in a number of guerrillas between it and the defenses of Washington Steps are being taken to capture them It would seem that a general engagement is considered probable from the fact that army surgeons have received orders to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to the Army of the Potomac

Guerrillas made a descent on the Alexandria Railroad last night at Accotink and carried off some 150 men of the 120th N Y regiment stationed there

NEW YORK, Oct 18 —The Herald has the following, dated Army of the Potomac, Oct 17th There was a renewal of the artillery firing on our extreme right to-day continuing only a few minutes The main body of the enemy has disappeared, and nobody knows where except Meade and his confidential military counselors A reconnoissance beyond our front failed to find the enemy in any considerable numbers All is quiet at 7 o clock this evening

CHICAGO Oct 18 —Late dispatches received to-night in regard to the Army of the Potomac are very contradictory One states that there is serious reason to believe that Lee with an augmented force is moving in the direction of the Potomac Another says the enemy has massed his forces at Manassas A dispatch, still later says rumors continue to multiply to the effect that a rebel column is moving toward Point of Rocks and Harper's Ferry but on careful inquiry no information has been obtained to confirm these reports

CINCINNATI Oct 19 —A large force, under Buckner is reported to be moving into Kentucky from the southeast apparently with the design of striking the Ohio near Gallipolis

CAIRO, Oct 19th —Little Rock advices to Oct 14th report all quiet Nothing has been heard of the rebels lately An opinion is entertained that a brigade could march from there to Texas without meeting with opposition Over 1 000 Arkansians have joined the Union army already

MEMPHIS Oct 17 —Col Hatch in pursuit of Chalmers, overtook him on the 13th three miles south of Baholia and after a severe fight, lasting two hours dislodged him from a strong position in which his guns had been advantageously posted and his infantry well covered The enemy retreated leaving fifty killed and wounded [illegible] the [illegible] at the town of Wyatt's they took another defensive position and on the 13th, when our forces came up to the enemy they crossed to the other side with [illegible] 3 000 and 4,000 men and nine pieces of artillery Col Hatch had 2 200 men and eight pieces of artillery The fight commenced at three P M Our artillery was massed in the centre The skirmishers were soon driven in The enemy then charged on our left and were repulsed with considerable slaughter The fight continued until after dark, the rebels gradually losing ground when Col Hatch ordered a charge driving the enemy, who finally broke and [illegible] taken Several prisoners were taken, and eighty rifles Our forces burned the town

Correspondence says as the result of six days pursuit, Col Hatch killed and wounded over 100 [illegible] captured a number and took about 300 stand of arms [illegible]

In a fight with Colonel Reddy, a few days since the rebels lost 150 men Their force numbered 3 000 while ours was less than 500

NASHVILLE, Oct 18 —Officers from Chattanooga report that Bragg's army is in force in front of Chattanooga They do not believe any part of the rebels have left to reinforce Lee The Cumberland river at Harpeth Shoals is now higher ten feet The low lands in the vicinity of the city are entirely submerged

CAIRO Oct 18 —The Memphis Bulletin of Oct 16th has information from a Union refugee from Central Mississippi, that all Joe Johnston's forces except one division are with Bragg Not over 10 000 rebel troops of all kinds are in the State

CORINTH (Miss) Oct 17 —Gen Stephen D Lee with 4 000 rebel cavalry, crossed to the north side of the Tennessee river at Tuscumbia Alabama Another raid on Rosecrans' communications is probably contemplated It is reported that Forrest who was recently interrupting Rosecrans' communications has been driven in the direction of Huntsville Alabama If this information be correct, Gen Lee's movement bodes no good to the force operating against Forrest as he can either [illegible] the rear or effect a junction with Forrest

CHATTANOOGA, Oct 18th —An officer just in reports that the rebel cavalry were driven back across the Tennessee river with over 2 000 killed wounded and captured and five pieces of artillery The Federal success is complete

WASHINGTON Oct 19th —A dispatch received at headquarters from Gen Rosecrans says Gen Crook reports that he had three fights with the enemy since leaving Sequatchie valley whipping them fully every time The last battle took place at Farmington where he fought the entire command of Wheeler and two brigades During the fight he succeeded in cutting the rebels in two scattering [illegible] capturing [illegible] 1 000 stand of cavalry arms and 240 prisoners The report says As I pushed on after the enemy I have not been able to ascertain the number of killed but it is very heavy They were scattered over a distance of fifteen miles [illegible] No fears need be entertained of their making another raid I am satisfied that their loss is not less than 2 000 men

NEW YORK, Oct 19th —A special dispatch to the Tribune dated Chattanooga Oct 18th says Complete returns from the infantry engaged in the late battles show the following Officers killed 181 wounded 621 missing 254 Men killed 1 525 wounded 8 698 missing 4 812, The losses of the cavalry are not reported but they will make the grand aggregate about 17,000 Thirty six pieces of artillery were lost and also a few wagons

The Southern papers of Oct 9th still insist that their whole loss will not exceed 12 000, but the partial returns published by them indicate that it is greater Hindman's division alone lost 2 500 out of 3 400 engaged The rebel editorials continue very despondent over the failure of Bragg to take Chattanooga

Joe Johnson is proved to have been all the time in Mississippi Rebel reports say that two corps of Grant's army are moving to succor Rosecrans, one overland from Memphis and the other by water

Jeff Davis is reported to have arrived at Bragg's army on the 10th

The vote of the Ohio regiments at this point as far as received foots up Brough 9 423 Vallandigham 252 The fifteen regiments yet to hear from will swell Brough's majority to 12 000

Torrents of rain continually falling have kept the armies quiet for three days The water courses are rising and the roads are very bad

European Intelligence

The directors of the Great Eastern Steamship Company have taken formal proceedings in bankruptcy in order to stay various actions and insure an equal distribution of the assets

England was startled by an earthquake early on the morning of October 6th It was felt in all directions No damage was done

The course adopted by Maximilian relative to Mexico disappoints the London speculators in Mexican securities A considerable decline had taken place It is reported that Spain is among the Powers resolved to recognize the new Mexican Emperor

The Polish question was unchanged It was reported that Prince Czartoriski had taken formal steps on the part of the Polish National Government to secure the recognition of the Poles as belligerents

THE TRUTH SHARPLY SPOKEN —Earl Russell is hearing a little of the opinion which the world at large will entertain of his recent letter where he confesses that the Government of England has not power to stop its own citizens from warring upon nations with which England is at peace The London Star, taking up this shameful avowal, which exposes the bad faith, as well as the weak character of the Government, says

The letter is an invitation to shipbuilders to set the law at defiance It is a proclamation to all the world that the Government of Great Britain is unable to prevent its subjects going to war upon their own private account with nations against whom the Government has no cause of complaint If this is to be our attitude in future we shall be treated as allies in the commonwealth of nations as a nest of privateer builders, unworthy of the style and title of a great power, and deserving neither sympathy nor quarter at the hands of others when the weakness of the Administration involves us in hostilities

Earl Russell will not have to wait for future history to record this verdict, nor a long time for the effects of his own conduct to recoil upon his own country

POLITICAL VAGARIES —A year ago, the cry of Democratic papers and speakers was that a major portion of the volunteers were Democrats and much abuse was heaped upon Republicans because they would not enlist Congress passed a law to conscript these non enlisting Republicans and compel them to fight when immediately Democrats raised a tremendous howl over the outrage! Another vagary is, that notwithstanding—according to Democratic authority—none but Democrats joined the army Democrats out of the army have insisted that soldiers should not be allowed to vote And another vagary is that in the army or out of it, the Democracy is outvoted more than two to one

A STARTLING PROPOSITION — In a recent speech in Ohio the Hon John Sherman presents the issue involved in the nomination of Vallandigham in the following most forcible light

"Here is a convicted traitor" says he, "nominated as the Democratic Governor of Ohio He is opposed to the Government opposed to the war will not vote a man to suppress the rebellion and will not vote a dollar to sustain our soldiers And yet the Democratic party calls upon the people to elect this man Commander in Chief of the army and navy of Ohio—and this in the midst of war with the enemies of the country whom he was convicted of aiding"

THIEVES AND ROAD AGENTS —We learn from gentlemen who arrived last night from Lewiston that there is reason to fear that Lloyd Magruder Charles Allen and Mr Abrons were murdered and robbed on the road between Bannock City and Lewiston by a gang [illegible] Romaine Page Howard and L[illegible] who committed the deed while Magruder and party were on their way to the latter place We understand measures have been taken to detect and catch the villains

THE TARGET EXCURSION —The target excursion made by the Washington Guards, of this city, yesterday, was an occasion of much pleasure and amusement to the members of the company, as well as to all those who visited the grounds during the day The company made a fine appearance as they paraded the streets on their departure in the morning, and the manner in which they went through the different exercises drew forth the admiration of all who witnessed them It has been in existence but two or three weeks, and the soldierly bearing and proficiency shown by the entire company proves clearly that Capt [illegible]ills is wholly competent and understands military tactics thoroughly The following named gentlemen won the prizes, three in number, by their skill as marksmen

First prize—Silver Cup—John Smear
Second " " W Lair Hill
Third " Watch—Marx Jaretzky

Distance of firing, one hundred yards The Judges were Col John McCraken, Capt E G Randall, S N Arrigoni, Henry Failing and Chas Burchardt

The Mechanics' Brass Band accompanied the excursionists, and enlivened the occasion with delightful strains of music Just previous to their leaving the grounds homeward bound a large box was brought forward directed to the 'Mechanics' Brass Band, Portland,'' which, upon being opened, was found to contain two splendid horns—Alto and B flat Cornet—made of German silver, the former costing $70 and the latter $60, which were ordered from New York by the friends of the band through Prof Sinsheim The Superintendent, Mr W I Mayfield, received the same with appropriate remarks, and presented them to Mr Frank N Plummer and Mr Peterson, who were taken entirely by surprise. The horns were exhibited to us last evening by the boys, who felt highly pleased [illegible] were quite proud of their presents

The return of the party in the evening was orderly and decorous, and the Washington Guards grounded arms at their armory well pleased with their excursion

CONCORDIAN SOCIETY —The "Concordian Society," of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary, whose exercises were suddenly postponed on Friday night last on account of an accident to the building gave their entertainment last evening Although no public announcement had been given, yet the chapel of the Academy was crowded The exercises were quite interesting and highly creditable to the young ladies of the Society The Bud of Hope, a paper, edited by the young ladies, and read by Miss J Devore, was well filled with choice reading matter, and would do honor to more mature minds The members of the society deserve much credit for the ability and talent displayed by them in the exercises of last evening, and they should be encouraged by all We hope soon to have another literary treat of the same sort

GOLD DUST —Wells, Fargo & Co brought down last evening, per steamer Hunt, $30,000 in gold dust A considerable amount also came down in the hands of passengers

THEATRICAL —The great play of "Willow Copse" will be presented to-night for the first time in this city Julia Dean Hayne will appear as Rose, and Mr Waldron as Luke. This piece is very highly spoken of, and has received favorable notices from the press Now is the proper time to attend the theatre, having fine weather and excellent acting Mrs Hayne's presence among us will probably be of short duration, and theatre goers should improve the opportunity of witnessing her personations again

COMPLIMENTARY DESCRIPTION —The Marysville Appeal, with its usual just discrimination of the various classes of the opponents of the Government, says that the so called Democratic party at present, is composed of three elements First— Secessionists, second— pure Copperheads; third—semi Copperheads The first are Southern born, and are entitled to respect and consideration from the early prejudices engrafted upon their minds by the system of slavery, and from the fact that they have relations in the Confederate army The second, the pure Copperhead, is a Northern born demagogue—and a vile traitor, who would sell his birth-right for an office, or any personal benefit to arise politically out of the success of the Democratic party The third, the semi Copperhead is a man led by the nose by Copperhead No 1 and the Secessionist, and hangs his political opinions upon the decision and course of others Ignorance excuses him from the censure due to the wily politician who looks upon a fat office before the honor of his country Choose ye between these positions Copperheads

But, there is a latent sentiment in the bosoms of the people which will rise ere long in lion like strength and assert itself in the face of pallid tyranny and quaking power—Trinity National

That "latent sentiment" recently 'hur[illegible]" in this neighborhood Three Union men lost horses, and a patriotic lady had her clothes line stripped, bare as a muskrat's tail —Sonora Flag

If our memory serves us well, this same "latent sentiment" the kind mentioned in both the above items, received a cruel rebuff recently in Ohio and Pennsylvania The "quaking" was evidently terrible to behold

Pleurisy Cured.

MADISON, IND., May 6, 1863.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.—Gents: This is to certify that I have had a severe attack of Pleurisy. The pain was so severe, that it would, at times, ALMOST TOOK MY LIFE! My physician did but little for me; that is, what he did, gave me no relief. I commenced using DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, also applying the hot poultice to the part affected, as directed, which produced a perspiration, and the pain began to get better, and by the use of two or three doses of the Pills, I found myself almost entirely relieved of the attack. I am constitutionally predisposed to this disease. I have always kept them on hand, and I find them the very best Pills in the world for that disease, also as a family medicine.

Yours, truly, SAMUEL PARKER.

Rheumatism Cured—WILLIAMSTOWN, Vt, May 15, 1862.—MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.—Dear Sirs: It is with great pleasure that I reply to your inquiry as to what effect your Panacea has had upon my long-standing complaint—Rheumatism. In March, 1861, I was confined to the house, and finally was obliged to keep my bed, suffering intensely from pain in the back and head, when, through the influence of a neighbor, I got a bottle of DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, which I used externally and internally, according to directions. Within twenty-four hours I was able to commence work, and in two days was completely cured! I have had several attacks of Rheumatism since, but a single trial of the PANACEA has always brought immediate relief.

Respectfully yours, JOHN B STAPLES.

I know the above to be a correct statement of facts.

Resumption of Specie Payments.—From official sources I learn that the finances of the Government are now in such a condition that Secretary Chase can resume specie payments with perfect safety, if he deemed it advisable. The Government is now in receipt of the enormous amount of one hundred millions of gold per annum for duties on imported goods; of this amount thirty-five millions will be needed to pay the interest upon all the public debt up to June, 1864, leaving sixty-five millions as a basis for the redemption of legal tender notes. To be sure the amount of legal tenders now in circulation is largely in excess of the sum of gold which could be used to meet them on demand, but it is no larger than the usual circulation of notes of incorporated companies, when compared with the specie in the bank; indeed, high official authority declares privately that, in consideration of the large amounts of legal tenders which have been drawn in during the issuance of the five twenties, the proportion of specie on hand to the legal tenders in circulation is actually greater than any bank in the United States has ever had. The first effect, then, of the resumption of specie payments by the Government would be to place the value of gold far below what it now is, and to give to the legal tender notes the market value of gold. With sixty-five millions of gold to back him, and armed with the panoply which Congress and his own consummate ability have given him, Chase could bid defiance to any "run" which brokers or speculators could make upon him. But the people, with faith in the integrity of the Government, and a knowledge of the fact that the gold to pay the greenbacks is in the vaults of the treasury—which last fact is more tangible—would prefer to use paper at gold value than to demand a coin currency which has never been popular or the rule—except in the Pacific States. But a more unfortunate effect of the resumption of specie payments would be that the notes of incorporated banks would sink in much the same proportion as Government paper would rise in value. It is notorious that the banks cannot resume specie payments, although the Government can, and ruin and disaster would immediately follow if the Secretary was to declare his readiness to meet his large obligations in gold. This is the intent which deters the astute and far seeing Secretary of the Treasury from resuming at once specie payments. It is easy to see how the paralyzation of the banks would entail financial distress upon many of the mercantile and industrial interests of the country, and it is also easy to explain thereby the seeming paradox that a resumption of specie payments at this time would be one of the worst financial terrors of the times. But is it not something only a little short of the marvelous that such a state of things should occur in the midst of this great war? How completely it justifies our unshaken faith in our own innate National greatness, and how potent an illustration is it of our wonderful National prolificness of resource. Thank God, the time will come when foreign critics and home-born traitors will see and admire the greatness of a people which can call from earth and air their hidden wealth with one plastic hand, and with the other crush the greatest rebellion which was ever known. Nor should it ever be forgotten that the nation is largely indebted to Salmon P. Chase for the signal prosperity to which his great financial and statesman-like abilities have conducted us.—Wash. Cor. Sac. Union.

The Only Way to Peace.—Gen. Meade has been presented with a sword which he has so nobly earned, and in his remarks accepting the gift he took occasion to say:

"I have to request of you, gentlemen, who are in civil life, that when you return home, you will spare no effort to make the people understand that all we want are men to fill up our ranks. Send these to us. Give us the numbers, and the war will soon be concluded. I think the rebels are now satisfied that their struggle is only a matter of time, as we have the force on our side, and that as soon as they see that we are bringing out that force in earnest they will yield."

It can only be by a policy rising above all party considerations, getting and keeping the greatest number of men in the field, with the least possible expenditure of friction, that this war will be brought to a successful issue. Whether drafting is or is not the best way of raising men is not the question now before the public. It is the law, and as such should be obeyed. It is a method of supporting the war which at least must prove the most fair and impartial method of obtaining men now, when the largest portion of the North is submitting to it.

Let the wisdom of politicians all over the country be shown, not in thwarting measures even seemingly impolitic for putting down the rebellion, but in making all things work smoothly and effectively for restoring the Union first of all, and above all other considerations, by raising men and sending them forward, and doing everything to make each State united and strong against all discord and indifference. In proportion as this course has been pursued, as it has in this State to a great degree, trouble has been saved, and the honor of the country supported. If the Government calls for militia, give it militia; if for volunteers raise volunteers; if for conscripts, aid the conscription. If colored regiments can be used, by all means let us use them, to save drafting white men. But the first and only question worth considering just now is the speedy and perfect restoration of the Union.—Salem (Mass.) Gazette.

A Golden Rule—Live within your Income.—The world is full of people who can't imagine why they don't prosper like their neighbors, when the real obstacle is not in banks or tariffs, in bad public policy or hard times, but in their own extravagance and heedless ostentation. The young clerk marries and takes a house, which he proceeds to furnish twice as expensively as he can afford; then his wife, instead of taking hold to earn a livelihood by doing her own work, must have a hired servant to help spend his limited earnings. Ten years afterwards you will find him struggling on under a load of debts and children, wondering why luck was always against him, while his friends regret his unhappy destitution and financial inability. Had they from the first been frank and honest, he need not have been so unlucky. The single man "hired out" in the country at $10 to $15 per month, who contrives to dissolve a year's earnings in frolics and fine clothes; the clerk who has $500 a year and melts $50 of it into liquors and cigars, are paralleled by the young merchant who fills a house with costly furniture, gives dinners and drives a fast horse on the strength of the profits he expects to realize when his goods are sold and his notes all paid. Let a man have a genius for spending, and whether his income be a dollar a day or a dollar a minute, it is equally certain to prove inadequate. The man who being single does not save money on $6 a week, will not be able to on $60; and he who does not lay up something in the first year of his independent exertion, will be pretty apt to wear a poor man's hair into his grave.

Uncle Abe's Latest.—The following is given as the latest from the White House:

In a recent familiar White House conversation, which incidentally touched upon Mr. Chase as a Presidential candidate, "Honest Old Abe" dryly remarked that he would not for the world dispossess the Secretary of the Treasury of this Presidential idea. "Let me," said the President, "explain. When I was yet a lad, working on a farm in Illinois, I was engaged with a brother, once upon a time, in the tedious business of ploughing with a very lazy old horse. No amount of beating would induce him to increase his usual speed, which was the slowest and sleepiest walk. It was my business to guide the plough, while my assistant, to the best of his ability, with a two-handed hickory, kept old Davy in motion. We were all creeping along, when suddenly he moved off at the pace of a young colt just put in harness. 'What is the matter?' I inquired. 'Oh,' said my brother, 'it's a great big horse fly fastened on old Davy's neck; shall I drive him off?' 'No, no,' said I; 'as long as he keeps old Davy going at this rate, let the horse-fly alone. With his assistance we shall get a heap of work out of old Davy.' So it is with Mr Chase. The next Presidency is his horse-fly, and it makes the patriotic Secretary as lively at his work as old Davy. Let the horse-fly alone."

The Copperhead Species.—California is not the only State which is politically cursed with that species which is known as a cross between the Democrat and Secessionist, yclept "Copperhead." The Washington correspondent of the Union thus describes the same class in the East:

A careful survey of the field and a considerable acquaintance with the people of the North and West has convinced your correspondent that the most dangerous and least understood enemy of the public welfare at this time is the Copperhead. In the District of Columbia, where the military arm is always bare, and even in New York city, where policy prevails, the disloyal element is subterranean and smothered, if not extinguished, but if we travel through the towns and villages of Maine, New Hampshire, Indiana, Illinois and Western New York, we find disloyalty, under the guise of Copperheadism, of the most malignant and rampant kind. There seems to be neither shame nor patriotism left in these mean creatures, who make no bones of openly expressing their sympathy with the rebels, and of avowing their belief in the ultimate triumph of the cause which they thus espouse. It is beyond comprehension how such a feeling was born, and upon what it feeds.

MR. SIMS appreciates the past liberal patronage of his friends, and trusts he may continue to merit it in the future. For the information of strangers, he would say that he feels confident that his experience in his particular calling is surpassed by none on this coast, which his superior work, sent to almost every town in California, Oregon, Victoria, and the Sandwich Islands, and to be seen on some of the best buildings in San Francisco, fully attest.

Also—A very large lot of Second Hand Shutters, of various dimensions, all for sale at very low rates.

AYER'S

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE Co., Iowa, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard,

ORLANDO SHELBY, [illegible]

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
